Colt may have just hated the rail last time; only one poor effort and that was his route debut; proven fresh, he has a nice stalk and kick style to draw from today and the last race was solid; the 3rd and 9th finishers won Grade 3s next out; major player.

In the money in 6 of 8 here; nice; winner of the Forego won next to remain unbeaten; racer has a penchant for finding the wire, 3 of his 15 wins were here; like fact Jacobson put racer though his motions since the last effort; racer handles any kind of going and should be a handful.

Colt could be on the fragile side as the races have been spaced; he showed he belongs with the Grade 3 win in Keeneland; wide in the Met Mile 3 back and Frosted won next and should be a legit factor in the BC Classic; look for this runner late if at all.

Gameness was on display for all to see in the last pair; he was crushed in his other stakes and that was a non-Graded fray; place horse in last was 4 clear; and he has trained forwardly for this; he may find himself a bit removed from the pace this time.

This is a tough sell; he crushed foes in his last win but that was a much softer group; even with the blinks, he could be hard pressed to maintain contact; whipless two back, would look for rider to try to get racer to settle and make the one run.

The good news is he is thriving right now; the bad news is he is making his stakes debut; place horse was taken down in last and the other runner in company line was 9 clear; 0 for 3 at this demanding trip and that must be addressed.

Only serious horses are in the money in 11 of 12; proven fresh but this is his first sprint try; this pilot up for the last 2 wins but racer will need to invent a trip; bullet blowout on Wednesday will have him buttoned down; would still be wary here. -Brian Mulligan
