He has only one lifetime win on the main track but it was over this surface under muddy conditions; should have gained some important conditioning in the last run when a belated fourth in a race which featured modest fractions; should receive a much livelier tempo this afternoon.

Controlled the pace throughout when claimed last month and, if he clears the inside speed without difficulty today, he can easily repeat; maintains top-notch rider despite the change of barns; can return instant dividends but is bound to be overbet in this case even though the class rise is significant.

Beaten favorite was caught wide on a muddy surface last month, his only effort since October; spots much in the way of experience but may have enough prompting ability to challenge the front-runner before the turn for home; suffered through another wide trip 2 races back in a G2 affair; curious item today.
