Broke her maiden for $7500 last September and then rallied for her second career win in December against $12.5 claimers; has a race under her belt this season and never contended in a six horse allowance tussle; off the pace type looks vulnerable enough; others preferred.

This mare ran evenly in her season opener, a mid range claimer and split the field without threatening the top three; she will not try two turns where she has hit the board three times in three tries going long; that said, she looks to be a borderline player this afternoon; bottom of the super.

Faded in her six furlong season debut and now gets to travel her favorite yardage where she has posted three wins; likely to lead the way out of the clubhouse turn and with Contreras on the reins, she just may go all the way as the lone speed in this contest; the one to catch.
