CLOSER LOOK: Ran reasonably well to be third here last out - though he tired in the lane; the form of that race has held up, though; the runner-up came back to win; fastest efforts have come on dirt and turf - he is 7-0-2-1 on the GG Tapeta; minor award anticipated.

Consistent from a Beyer perspective, regularly running figures in the 72-73 range; he also narrowed edged Blu Jon when they met two starts ago; barn is having a god meet and this one drops in class - and for the most part this horse is not strongly backed at the mutuel windows.

Long ago he managed a second at this distance, but he's been kept sprinting for the most part over his 38-race career; so have to wonder about his ability to last going a distance of ground; Hollendorfer might be trying to get his confidence up by placing him in a spot where he can establish the pace; tough read.

For a horse with 9 victories, he has been regularly outfinished in the stretch since winning a race on the grass here in April of last year; nice figures in his last two starts, and he is obviously a versatile horse that can run well on the lead or from just off the pace; fell a few noses short of Six Votes when fourth last out.

Three noses separated first through fourth last time, and it was this ne that got his nose in front; that was a brave effort from a horse that had little experience routing; doesn't get the weight break that he received last time - for those that put an emphasis on that; a winner of a third of his starts at GG on the Tapeta.
